

Mountain Wood Fern (Dryopteris campyloptera) Identification Features

Overall shape is broadly triangular with a tip that narrows abruptly.

Bottom pinnae have much longer innermost lower pinnules with an extended tip. Innermost pinnule above them is offset and small. Margins of pinnules are sharply toothed with bristles. Sori located between midrib and margins.